A sea god whose brash smile promised paradise . . .

With his dark hair, sapphire eyes, and bronzed physique, Brace Coolidge was irresistible--and he knew it! Destiny Smith figured she could hold her own with this modern-day Valentino who rode the waves with sexy confidence, but even she never dreamed what a passionate embrace would lead to only three days later. Shadowed by dangers she couldn't see, haunted by betrayal he vowed was untrue, could they preserve a fated love?

Woven of both turbulent emotion and sweet sensuality, Helen Mittermeyer's story explores the fascinating and complex struggle a true happily-ever-after requires! She'd always been a rebel who dared the world--and her family--to tell her no, but could the charming rogue who'd loved her in an instant tempt her into yielding her heart?
